

Reach the field of Addiction Medicine with your message...

Renting the mailing list of the American Society of Addiction Medicine (ASAM) can provide you with a valuable opportunity to reach individuals or organizations within the field of Addiction Medicine with your message.

ASAM's mailing list contains more than 1,900 individual members of the Society, who encompass all medical specialties and subspecialties. The members of ASAM are engaged in private practice, research and medical education; serve as corporate medical directors; and work in group practice or other clinical settings.

To target your message beyond ASAM's members, the Society's mailing list also is composed of more than 10,000 individual organizational non-members who are involved in the field of Addiction Medicine, including: physicians; social workers; counselors; nurses; hospitals and treatment centers.
