

The Henry M. Jackson Foundation (HJF) is seeking an Addiction Specialist to support the Prescription Medication Abuse Educational Program at the Uniformed Services University of the Health Sciences (USUHS) of Anesthesiology in Bethesda, Maryland. HJF provides administrative and management support to USUHS.

Responsibilities:

1. Designs, directs, and participates in development and implementation of the educational curriculum.
2. Analyzes clinical data.
3. Monitors and evaluates the quality and appropriateness of the educational program.
4. Provides relevant program status reports to the institution, regulatory agencies, and sponsors of the clinical research programs.
5. Prepares scientific papers for presentation at local and national meetings and for publication in medical and scientific periodicals.
6. Performs other assignments as required.

Required Knowledge, Skills, and Abilities: Thorough knowledge of behavioral and addiction medicine and the procedures and techniques necessary for caring for patients taking medications with abuse potential; knowledge of medical science; experience in the design of educational material; ability to communicate effectively; ability to make effective presentations and publish; excellent verbal, written and interpersonal skills.

Minimum Education/Training Requirements: PhD. degree. (Will also accept MSW candidates)

Minimum Experience: 4 to 6 years related experience in a psychiatry service; Background in caring for patients taking medications with abuse potential preferred.

Physical Capabilities: Bending, standing, and sitting.

Required Licenses, Certification or Registration:

Supervisory Responsibilities/Controls: May supervise clinicians, scientists, researchers or medical support staff.

Work Environment: Office environment.

Please apply on-line at www.hjf.org/careers Click "Advanced Search" and enter job number 204872 in the Job Opening ID box. OR fax your resume to 240-314-7334. Please specify title and job number on fax.

HJF is a nonprofit medical research organization that provides support services to the military medical community and offers a competitive salary and generous benefits package.

AA/EEO

For a comprehensive list of our benefits, please visit:

<http://www.hjf.org/careers/benefits.html>

HJF administers innovative medical research, supports education and training, and facilitates collaborations between the military and private medical communities. We provide comprehensive management and scientific services for more than 1,000 basic, clinical and applied research projects conducted around the globe. We also support continuing medical education programs for more than 160 military medical research and treatment facilities, and military medical organizations.

Posted January 25, 2010