

Narcotic Treatment Physician Greater Philadelphia

NHS Human Services (“NHS”), and its subsidiaries, is a major provider of community-based behavioral healthcare, serving the special needs of over 50,000 children and adults annually.

NHS is currently searching for an experienced Program Physician for its Outpatient Addiction Services division covering SE PA. The Program Physician will practice outpatient addiction medicine which will include: admission physicals, intake evaluations, medication checks, case consults, and discharges. The Physician will also be a part of the Multidisciplinary Treatment Team.

Successful candidate will be licensed to practice medicine in PA with a current DEA license and Suboxone waiver. The successful candidate will also be Certified in Addiction Medicine by ASAM or be willing to work towards certification.

Full Time position will cover two Outpatient program locations in Philadelphia, PA and one facility in Sharon Hill, PA.

Interested applicants please send CV to: MD@NHSONline.org

NHS is an EOE

Posted June 15, 2010